Dear Mrs. Clarus,

Although the loss of the family Bible is very unfortunate, your letter puts me in ready possession of the book would furnish most of the dates. George came [illegible] before his marriage in 1818, was probably born in the Spring of 1797. Tom must have been born in 1799, I think - Jon in 1803. This is a point which the person most interested often misunderstands, but as I have no doubt you are satisfied that Jo was born 9 months before your father's death, the thing is settled in a moment; because I have the certificate of the record of his death, in the [illegible] which bears date 16 April 1824 and on this there is no possibility of mistake.

You are a wonderful woman either way; & your handwriting whether for 79 or 80 is equally surprising.

I was grieved to hear of your grief in regard to the news in America. Was it true. Speed? Please let me know whether you approve my calculation of your

both yours, with best regards, believe me &
Ever yours sincerely

Pleasure.

My dear Mr Forman

In spite of your faith in "The Gentleman's Magazine" there is a little mistake of a year in the death of my Father, for I have always heard that I was 9 months old at his death. I have in my possession, though I cannot at this moment lay my hand upon it, a certificate of my birth, extracted from the register of Bishopsgate Church, which proves my birth to have been June 5th 1804.

Many thanks for your Comts. With kind regards to all, believe me to remain Yours most sincerely

Jenny Keats de Llanos
